Keep Sedona Beautiful (KSB) on Wednesday January 31, 2018 presented its Awards of Excellence, recognizing two businesses and two local couples whose activities have contributed significantly to our community.

Executive Vice President Joanne Kendrick kicked off the event by recapping KSB's 2017 accomplishments, including lifting litter on 70 miles of Sedona roads, promoting our dark skies, sponsoring the Native Plant Workshop and our Speaker Series, and working on noise abatement issues.

KSB President Mike Yarbrough then paused to honor Jim Eaton who passed away recently. Jim was a past president of KSB, a board member, a recipient of numerous awards, a very active community leader, and a friend and mentor. Jim often stated his belief that the
