Join us on Wednesday October 10, 2018, 5:30 pm for speaker presentation Nicole Branton on "The State of the Red Rocks."

Nicole Branton has been the District Ranger for the Red Rock Ranger District of the Coconino National Forest since 2013. In her 20 years with the USDA Forest Service, she has worked in Arizona, Colorado, Utah, South Dakota, Wyoming, and Washington, D.C.

While sharing an extensive collection of photographs of the Red Rock District, Branton will take a look back at the work that Coconino National Forest employees, partners, and volunteers have accomplished over the past year in taking care of our public lands and helping over two million people to enjoy them sustainably!

She will also answer questions about fire, smoke, traffic, water quality, graffiti, and more.

The evening includes complimentary appetizers donated by El Rincon Restaurante Mexicano and refreshments provided by Keep Sedona Beautiful (KSB).

Mark in your calendar now!
Thursday October 11, 6:00 pm!

Mayor Coral Evans will speak about Flagstaff's emerging Climate Action and Adaptation Plan, a milestone that draws upon success stories from cities around the world and how people are making a difference daily. Cottonwood's Mayor Tim Elinski will be moderating. This will be an inspiring presentation which includes a Q and A.

If you missed the Mayor's presentation in Sedona, now is your chance to take it all in.

Co-sponsors include OLLI, Sedona Philosophy, Sedona's Sustainability Alliance, League of Women Voters, Friends of the Verde River, and NAZCCA.

Thursday, October 11, 6-7:30 p.m., room M-37,
