Greetings!

KSB Preserving the Wonder™
Speaker Series
with Barry Mallis
"Paleogeology of Sedona"
Tuesday, November 10, 2020 5:00pm

ZOOM on in to hear KSB member and volunteer Barry Mallis for the Keep Sedona Beautiful Preserving the Wonder™ Speaker Series to be held on Tuesday, November 10th at 5:00 pm.

Mr. Mallis, fueled by his experience in providing guided nature walks at Red Rock State Park emphasizing the geology of our immediate region, will speak using visuals of the paleogeology of Sedona. Barry's experience also lies in helping to lead the park's geology hikes on the second Sunday of each month during the cooler months. He enjoys hiking the trails just yards from his house. His love of geology could not have found a better milieu than that of Central Arizona.
