MITZVAH DAY IS BACK! SUNDAY OCTOBER 29, 2023 SIGN-UP NOW TO VOLUNTEER!

You are invited to participate in this community-based, interfaith, intergenerational day of service to local organizations. Mitzvah Day is organized by the Jewish Community of Sedona and the Verde Valley with participation by local churches and civic and philanthropic groups.

Volunteers will sign in at the synagogue on Sunday, October 29 from 12:30 to 1:00, pick up food and water, sign liability forms, and get name tags with the Mitzvah Day logo. Then volunteers will proceed to their work sites, and perform their good deeds. An alternative meeting site is the Habitat for Humanity headquarters, at 737 So. Main Street, Cottonwood. End at 4:00. There will be a final program at the synagogue (attendance optional).

We have 13 projects:

- Help restore the Keep Sedona Beautiful EcoHub grounds at KSB headquarters.
- Clean up and organize old storeroom at KSB headquarters.
- Crafting for various organizations - knitting and sewing teddy bears, making gift cards, etc. at the synagogue.
- Trash Pickup for the U.S. Forest Service in Oak Creek Canyon (at Manzanita Campground near Oak Creek) and in the Village of Oak Creek (at Courthouse Vista). (2 projects)
- Do yard work at Hope House.
- Light trail maintenance at Red Rock State Park.
- Stuff envelopes for the Sedona Food Bank at the synagogue.
- Organize supplies and do light cleaning for the Humane Society of Sedona.
- Stuff + label envelopes for Old Town Mission (at JCSVV).
- Outdoor work at Habitat for Humanity (Cottonwood).
- Sorting & packing produce, plus other chores at Manzanita Outreach (Cottonwood).
- Organizing the shelter and socializing animals at the Humane Society of the Verde Valley (Cottonwood)
